What is Vistage? For more than 60 years, Vistage has been bringing together successful CEOs, business owners and executives into confidential peer advisory groups. Together, they candidly discuss their toughest challenges and biggest opportunities. They share insights, identify blind spots and offer agenda-free advice from those who've faced similar challenges.

It started in 1957 when Bob Nourse gathered six business leaders from non-competing industries around a table in Milwaukee to help solve each other's challenges. The formula worked, members of his group made better decisions, achieved greater results and outperformed their competition.

Vistage Chairs challenge, question and guide.

At the heart of what makes the Vistage experience so powerful and so effective for so many members are our expert executive coaches, known as Chairs.

They are a hand-picked, elite group of accomplished business leaders. They've led organisations across a wide range of industries. Some have owned businesses, many have been CEOs of domestic and international companies, and all are united by a desire to share their insight and expertise to guide other business leaders on their path to personal and professional excellence.

"Undoubtedly the most fulfilling role I've taken on – it's as if everything I've done had brought me here. It's a privilege to spend time with people I choose to be around, to continue my own development and feel each day I've done something meaningful"

Laura Gordon
Vistage Chair

Each Chair forms peer advisory groups of high-calibre business leaders from non-competing industries. Each month, they facilitate candid, confidential roundtable discussions about the most pressing business and leadership decisions. In these meetings, Chairs:

- Ask the difficult questions to motivate high-impact decisions.
- Become agents of influence to help members push their businesses forward.
- Frame issues to inspire robust discussions and critical thinking.
- Facilitate collaboration to help members map out plans of action.

Between monthly group meetings, they meet one-to-one with each member to provide guidance tailored to their unique challenges. Together they identify important topics and decide which issues to bring to the next meeting, where the group will help map out a plan of action.

The rigour bears results. According to a 2017 analysis of Dun & Bradstreet data, Vistage member companies grew 2.2 times faster than average small and medium-sized businesses.

A great Chair has a record of success and is driven to give back.

Vistage Chairs have achieved success as a CEO, business owner or senior executive. They've lived through the day-to-day complexities and challenges of being the person at the top. They've experienced the intense highs and lows of having the ultimate responsibility for an organisation.

They have strong financial acumen, superb management skills and an innate entrepreneurial spirit. They've realised the kind of success to which most only aspire. Now, they want to share their wisdom and experience to help other business leaders grow.

Becoming a Vistage Chair is an opportunity to impact the business community in a way that is measurable. Meaningful. Lucrative. For many, it is the pinnacle of their achievements.

“The entry barrier is high because anybody can be a coach but to be a Chair is a true mission. It's not a job. It's not about the money. I really feel this is my life's work, and so many of this amazing Chair community will tell you we have the best job on the planet”
